

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

February 26, 2009

Teacher Appreciation is next week, March 2-6. Enjoy this week of good will by expressing your appreciation for your child's teacher in any way you see fit. The events organized by the Parent Club are as follows:

- Continental Breakfast on Monday morning.
- Home-cooked luncheon on Thursday. (Recess supervisors still needed.)
- Teacher Appreciation Assembly on Friday, March 6, at 11:00 a.m. in the PUCE Gym.

The eagerly anticipated See's candy fliers are being sent home today with any student interested in participating in this fundraiser. If you would like to purchase some See's candy and did not get a brochure, you may pick one up in the office. The general consensus is that every single item offered for sale is delicious. Orders are due March 30, and the yummy chocolates, lollipops, peanut brittle boxes, toffee-ettes and crème-filled eggs will arrive before Easter.

Congratulations to Taylor Bothwell and Jessica O'Connor! Both have qualified to represent PUC Elementary at the St. Helena Junior Women's Club 34th Annual Vintage Spelling Bee held every year for students in the fifth grade. The bee will be held on Tuesday, March 17, at 7:00 p.m. at St. Helena Elementary School on Adams Street. Alternate spellers are Lucas Lyons and Joy Woo. Thank you to Julie Jensen for coordinating this activity.

YES!
Brownie Boy, Kookie Kid and Mission Muffin are planning an appearance tomorrow—which one it will be, nobody knows. Be surprised.

There will be a live, nationwide simulcast entitled Revolutionary Parenting, held at Pacific Union College Church on Saturday, March 14, from 8:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. Learn from the likes of George Barna, Dr. Jim Burns, Dr. John Townsend, and Steve and Valerie Bell. $15/person and $25/per couple. Childcare and lunch provided with admission. For more information and pre-registration call 965-7297.

Do you know of a good local travel agent? If you are willing to share their information, call the office. The school has a family that is looking for an agent.

There is still room in the Babysitter Training class on Sunday, March 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., here at the school. The cost of $55 is due by Friday, March 6. Make checks payable to PUC Elementary.

Next week's lunch menu is Week 1: Pizza, Ravioli, Haystacks and Potatoes

Dear PUCE Family,

We just wanted to thank each one of you for the unbelievable support that you have given to our family as we have dealt with Jonny D's illness. It has been one of the most harrowing experiences. But witnessing the amazing support and caring from everyone gave us strength. Since going through this we have come to realize how fortunate we are to be part of such a giving community. Words cannot express the appreciation we feel. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for letting us be a part of this larger family and caring so much for our son.

Jonny & Laurie Halversen
