

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

January 29, 2009

As of today, PUCE students have collected enough money to save 51 children from hunger through Project Plumpy Nut. This is just shy of 1/3 of our goal to save one child for every person (full-time students, part-time students, faculty, and staff) in our school. Keep "filling those bellies." Make a life-changing difference in the life of a child.

Two Bake Sales this Friday! Eat for the good of the cause. Stop by the College Market after school for a treat. Enjoy a treat or two and get your car washed at the same time in the lot across from the market.

The next Parent Club Meeting is Friday, February 6, at 8:00 a.m. in the Teacher's Lounge.

WALL-E is showing Saturday night, February 7, in the PUC Church Fireside Room at 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. The film is sponsored by Pacific Union College and no admission will be charged. PUC Elementary will be selling refreshments--including fresh corn dogs! The proceeds will go to help the Halversen family with expenses related to Jonny's illness.

It's true! Abraham Lincoln was sighted on Wednesday as he gave the 4th-grade class an official send-off on their trip to Angel Island. Thanks Abe!

Think, think, think. School Spirit Week is coming Tuesday-Friday, February 10-13. What will you wear? Tuesday is Hat and/or Scarf Day, Wednesday is Old-Fashioned Day, Thursday is Backwards Day and Friday is Crazy Hair Day.

PUC Elementary is hosting a class for students, ages 11 and up, who are interested in Babysitter Training. The course is taught by the American Red Cross and will take place at the school on Sunday, March 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Students will receive a certificate upon completion. The cost is $55. Space is limited, so please call the office to sign up. Payment is due by Friday, March 6.

The Parent Club will send home See's candy flyers in February for those of you that will be buying candy for Easter. All proceeds (we make a 50% profit!) benefit our students.

Next week's lunch menu is Week 1: Pizza, Ravioli, Haystacks and Potatoes
