

PUCE Weekly News

January 3, 2008

Brrr! The weather forecasters are predicting a chance of snow in the next few days. If Dr. Dick decides to call a Snow Day and cancel school due to weather conditions, he will let the teachers know as early as possible and the teachers, in turn, will call you. If you decide on your own not to make the journey, just call and let Lisa know that you are safe at home!

Calling all parents! There is a Parent Club Meeting tomorrow at 8:00 a.m. in the Teacher's Lounge. Time to plot and plan.

Thank you to community member Ruth Andrieux for the new bulletin board about reading in our main hallway. Parents are encouraged to submit photographs of themselves reading with their child and it will be posted on the board to complete the picture. The bulletin board dovetails nicely with Love of Reading Week, coming up January 14-18.

Updated school bulletins have been mailed out today. Tuck this booklet in a safe place and refer to it for information on the calendar, finances, curriculum, and school regulations. Thank you to David Kim for the cover picture.
