

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

November 20, 2008

Thanksgiving Break is next week, November 24-28. Enjoy the holiday, and in the words of Dr. Seuss, "Feast, feast, feast!" School resumes on Monday, December 1.

Check out pictures that Ellen Dick took from The Princess and the Pea at the following website:

<http://gallery.me.com/jimellen>

Username: pucefam

Password: pea

The Parent Club is planning a Christmas Luncheon for the teachers on Wednesday, December 10. Parent volunteers are needed between 11:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. to supervise students so that their teachers may enjoy the luncheon. If you are able to help either the whole time or a portion of time, please call Angie Yeager (965-9828) or Lisa Butler.

Angie Yeager will be calling parents to request menu items for the Teacher Luncheon. If you would like to contribute something, feel free to call Angie first.

If you ever want to give a gift to your student's teacher but aren't sure what their likes and dislikes are, the Parent Club did a teacher survey last August and copies of their preferences are on file in the office.

As part of our Centennial Celebration, the December 16 Christmas Music Program spotlights music from the past. Mr. Hunt would like the choir students to dress in old fashioned clothing. Be thinking what you have that will fit with this theme. Band students will be asked to wear the usual black and white, but to accent it with an old fashioned hat. Have fun with this!

The lunch menu will begin with Week 1 on December 1: Pizza, Ravioli, Haystacks and Potatoes

Upcoming Events:

Monday-Friday, November 24-28, Thanksgiving Holiday

Wednesday, December 3, School Board, 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday, December 16, Christmas Music Program

Wednesday, December 17, Minimum Day

Thursday, December 18 – Friday, January 2, Christmas Break

Monday, January 5, School Resumes