September 27, 2007

Chris Hagen will be leading out in a Week of Prayer program with our students next week, October 1-5. K-4 will meet at 12:05 p.m. and 5-8 will begin at 12:35 p.m. Students will gather daily to sing, talk and worship together. Parents are always welcome to attend.

At last! The telephone in Extended Care now works. If you need to get in touch with someone in the Extended Care program, call 965-2345. Please accept our apologies for the long, frustrating delay.

Soon you will be seeing two new faces at Extended Care. Holly Jeske has hired on Sue Aldred and Kayloni Hagelgantz as her assistants. Sue has grown children of her own and is the wife Larry Aldred, the principal at PUC Prep. Kayloni is a freshman early childhood education major at PUC who comes to us with previous experience working in a school and as a summer camp counselor.

Every student receives one shirt free when they begin upper grade P.E. If you would like to own more than one, they are available for $10 each.

Parents are invited to hear guest speaker/author Regan McMahon talk on Wednesday evening, October 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Helena Elementary Auditorium. Regan is the author of Revolution in the Bleachers—How Parents Can Take Back Family Life in a World Gone Crazy Over Youth Sports.

Minutes from last Wednesday's Parent Club meeting are posted on the office bulletin board and will be emailed to parents on the school email list. Of interest is the decision to add candle sales to the fall cookie dough fundraiser. Hum . . . what shall it be, a candlelit ambiance or cookies and milk?

Students that are participating in the Northern California Conference Camporee will be leaving from school on Thursday, October 4, at 2:00 p.m.

Next week's hot lunch menu is Week Two.
